

ATHENA

A BI-LINGUAL RESEARCH JOURNAL

What the Principal accords —

I am happy to forward this starting volume of Athena — the bilingual research journal of the college to the readers inquisitive. I believe readers who do not disallow a discipline as to be disintegrated from other ones, rather prefer to grow sagacious owning knowledge from varied options, shall have jolly receptions in this journal, because it comprises approaches of different studies.

However, in this burble moment, I bid respectful thanks to all the contributors and impetus to the young enthusiastic members of the editorial board alongwith the editor, who out of sturdy toil have translated the dream into reality.

Gratutide I utter to the authorities for providing the journal with ISSN.

May this dart be non-stop.
